ABOUT

Born and raised in southwest New Hampshire, April Cushman is a nationally and internationally touring artist and songwriter also based in Nashville. April has toured with her band as well as Darius Rucker's band, and has been touring around Europe for sold out shows, 5 times in the past year and a half with hit writer showcase, Nashville Nights. With the story telling of Lori McKenna and the grit and soul of Ashley McBryde, April captures the hearts of everyone who experiences her sets. She has been headlining her own theatre shows as well as supporting national artists. She just recently sold 500 tickets to a hometown theatre show in Keene, NH.
